

The Beat Goes On #108:

“Time Has Told Me: The Songs of Nick Drake”

Host Travis Parkin introduces the program with some biographical information on English singer-songwriter and musician Nick Drake (1948-1974), best known for his acoustic, autumnal songs. Although Drake failed to find an audience during his lifetime, his work has since grown steadily in stature, to the extent that he is now widely considered to be one of the most influential singer-songwriters of the last 50 years. The program includes a number of selections by Nick himself as well as provocative covers by Lucinda Williams, Jesse Sykes & the Sweet Hereafter, The Charlie Hunter Quartet featuring Norah Jones, and other distinguished performers.
